Description: 2 identical photos of 4 boys in the foreground watching the demolition of Mt. View Elementary in the background
Includes a display card with text: "Old Landmark Demolished. The passing of another landmark in the Highline District took place when the old original school building of the Mt. View School, built about 1910 was ripped apart by demolition crews. The boys watching will all be eighth graders in the fall. They are, l to r, John Aumann, Rudy Seltz, and John Saxby. (The boy with the bike was not identified.) The veteran Mt. View wooden building was razed on June 13 and 14, 1963. The structure has been supplemented by newer brick additions which are well lighted, easier to heat, highly functional, and fireproof. Of the thousands who went to school there, some are now grandparents and great grandparents. The longest principalship there was held by Jesse Neiswender from the years of 1925 to 1942. He was followed by Arthur Rogers, present principal. (Taken from Highline Times News Item - 7/10/63."
