Sepia toned photo of 4 men standing on a cabin porch. Bill Dashley on the right. 1920-1930 in Alaska (mountains faintly visible in background are not in Burien)

According to contributor, the barn is the Bob Lynch barn (1880 - 1887) built on the property of Bob Lynch on the east shore of Lake Burien. Charlie Schoening, Fred Dashley and Bill Dashley were together in Alaska. They went up for the gold rush to pan gold and that is how they got their money to buy property on Lake Burien.

Folder includes 8x10 original, two copy prints and a 35mm color copy negative

N.B. Very confusing information...is the photo of the property on Lake Burien or is the photo of the four men at a cabin in Alaska?

5 x 7 B&W photo of Shirley Farley and Dennis Steven taken December, 1989. Farley is wearing a name badge that reads
"School Board Member"

Born in Omak and raised in Wenatchee, Shirley M. Farley passed away on 1/27/2008 at the age of 83. She left a legacy of service to her family and community. A nature enthusiast, she worked for the U.S. Forest Service as a young adult, was a lifetime fan of geology and botany, delighted in drives through the mountains and forests, and served on RIBCO, an early 1970s endeavor at watershed management.

She held a B.A. in Social/Political Science and an M.A. in Education/History from Whitman College and continued to promote education as a P.E.
